

PROMISE AND LAW

The Scout Promise

On my honor

I promise to do my best

To do my duty to God and to the Republic of Singapore.

To help other people and

To keep the Scout Law.

I promise that I will do my best

- Promise must be something which you must be able to keep.
- No one expects you to always succeed, but success will only come when you have put in your best. Always put in your best effort in everything you do.

To do my duty to God and to the Republic of Singapore

- Duty means something you have to do.
- Even when the most brainy people in the world cannot prove that something does not exist

To help other people and ...

- Training in not being selfish.
- Always ready to help whether in uniform or not.
- A good turn does not really count if you are more concerned about what you will get out of it.

To keep the Scout Law.

- Five parts of the Scout Law
 - To be trust-worthy
 - To be loyal to our country, troop, etc.
 - To be friendly to all
 - To be disciplined and considerate
 - To face difficulties in a courageous manner.

Obeying or Keeping them is not enough. Be doers of your word

The Scout Law

A Scout is to be trusted.

A Scout is loyal.

A Scout makes friends, establishes and maintains harmonious relations.

A Scout is disciplined and considerate.

A Scout has courage in all difficulties.

A Scout is to be trusted.

- A person who can be relied upon to carry out his duties faithfully.
- Through his personal bearing and conduct he is able to win the trust and confidence of others.

Question to ask yourself

- If you say you will do something, is it 'as good as done'? (So Do what you say)
- Can people trust what you say?

A Scout is loyal.

- Loyalty means choosing something and sticking to it.
- Loyalty to your Home, to your friends, to Community in which you live, to your Scout Unit, to your Nation.

A Scout makes friends, establishes and maintains harmonious relations.

- Enlarge your circles of friends with local as well as foreign Scouts.
- Make good friends, appreciate good friends and maintain good friendship.
- Making friends by thinking about what they would like rather than what you want.
